

Nominate an Industry Leader

NATSO is accepting nominations for the Hall of Fame and Friend of the Industry awards until Dec. 28.

The NATSO Hall of Fame Award

The NATSO Hall of Fame award recognizes current or past NATSO members whose participation in their communities, the industry and our association brings honor to and serves as a source of pride for the travel plaza and truck-stop industry. Formerly the Distinguished Member award, the Hall of Fame award can be given to current or former members of NATSO who have provided significant leadership to the industry. Past recipients of this award were cited for their dedication to the industry evidenced through NATSO participation and overall industry leadership. Recipients have included such industry leaders as Phil Saunders, Jack Cardwell, Bill Sheriff and Carolyn Moon.
